

Rock, Paper, Scissors

Date Night

How it Works

1. Grab your spouse.
2. Hop in the car.
3. Play a rousing game of Rock Paper Scissors.
4. The winner picks the location you go to for appetizers.
5. Repeat steps 3 & 4 until you have an appetizer, entree, and dessert.

For example: if you win the first round you head to your go-to spot for mozzarella sticks. Play again, your spouse wins this time, they pick chicken parmesan for the entree. On the third time, you win and pick gelato for dessert. You may get to choose all three or none of them, but that's part of the fun!
