Use these questions to spark fun, intentional conversations this week. You can snap a photo of this page or scan the QR code to access these questions on your phone. Read the questions ahead of time so you come prepared to share your thoughts with your significant other.

Whether you enjoy a long walk together or carve out time after dinner one night to talk, the goal is to set aside time to laugh, dream, and process life together. Remember, one of our Core 4 Habits is to Have Serious Fun!

Whose marriage
do you admire
and why?

In this week's personal work, we each had to select a marriage mindset. Which mindset (Restless, Reluctant, Romantic, Resolute and Rational) did you choose and why?

When you think about our relationship, what's one character trait that,
if I grew in it, would help us become even stronger together?

Romans 12:10 says we're called to "Outdo one another in showing honor." With that in mind, what's one thing you admire about your significant other, but maybe don't tell them often enough? Take this as an opportunity to let them know!
