

Pastor Julie's Declarations

My Faith

Jesus, you are first in my life. I exist to serve and glorify you. You are for me and you want me to flourish.

My Leadership

Because of the full, abundant life Jesus gave me, I will give my life and my leadership to create a place where people can find Him and experience the joy that comes from living out their purpose.

My Calling

I am disciplined and I order my life to grow closer to Him.

My Joy

I choose happiness but I do not resist pain. I will do the hard thing, take the high road, and press into uncomfortable situations because I know this will make me more like Jesus and produce a joy that will outlast today.

My Family

I love my husband. I will honor him by the way I look at him, talk to him, and talk about him. I will make him glad he married me.

When I'm Overwhelmed

This day is God's gift to me. It will be full. Full of opportunity to add value to people. Full of challenges that I am fully equipped to take on and gifted for. Full of disruptions that I am graced to handle. Full of God's goodness at every turn.

My Relationships

Because God's spirit is in me, I will love people without reserve and believe the best about them. I do not have to fear rejection.

When "Not Enough" Creeps in

My limitation is your opportunity. Your strength is perfect so I don't have to be.
