

Lance's Life Manifesto

- ◆ I will meet with God each day before I meet with people.
- ◆ Connie will be my "best friend" and I will be her biggest cheerleader.
- ◆ I will enjoy the beauty of nature... it refreshes my soul.
- ◆ I will be present with people and with God... this requires "slow" and "space".
- ◆ I will pursue a healthy rhythm of life and relentlessly practice Sabbath.
- ◆ I will pray "faith-filled" prayers.
- ◆ I will make much of Jesus not make much of myself.
- ◆ I will discipline myself to regularly unplug from technology.
- ◆ I will embrace both truth and grace in every relationship.
- ◆ I will be an available grandfather and dad and intentionally invest in the spiritual development of my family.
- ◆ I will have people in my life who can rebuke me... and who love me enough to protect me from myself.
- ◆ I will wisely manage my time and health... I've only got one life and one body.
- ◆ I will honor and love people and speak blessing into their lives.
- ◆ I will intentionally pursue a handful of life-long and life-giving friendships.
- ◆ I will live simply and give generously
