

Email to be sent AFTER Session 4:

Hey, family! (We're practically family now, right?)

I can't believe we're over halfway through our study. It has been the highlight of my week and a privilege to walk through these sessions with you.

This week's homework is on pages 35-39. In addition to this week's homework, we also have access to two incredible resources written by Pastors Todd and Julie.

- Promises to Hold on to During Times of Doubt, Fear, and Instability
- Daily Declarations

We only have two more sessions to go, so let's make the most of them! See you next week!
