

KEEP TALKING

In this message, Pastor Todd challenged us to examine whether our faith is actually visible to those around us. Use this guide to keep talking about what God revealed to you during Sunday's message. Use this guide to keep talking about how to walk in the fullness of God's promises.

SERMON HIGHLIGHTS

- How brightly we shine for Jesus could determine whether or not someone else finds Jesus.
- The message needs a messenger.
- As Christians, we have nothing to prove — but we do have a lot to offer.
- Sometimes, the thing we think disqualifies us is actually the very thing that qualifies us to share the gospel.

START TALKING

- If you could go on an undercover mission, where would you go, what would you do, and why?

KEEP TALKING

- Read Matthew 5:13-16. Who in your life has a faith that shines? What makes their faith so noticeable and attractive?
- God didn't create us to blend in — He made us to stand out. How do you sense God calling you to stand out in this season?
- When was the last time you talked about Jesus with someone who didn't know Him? What was that experience like?
- What usually keeps you from being more vocal about your faith?
 - Read Romans 10:9-14. How does this change the way you think about sharing your faith?
- What's your God story? Practice sharing it in this setting.
 - Who do you need to "go and tell" your story to this week?

KEEP IT GOING

- Easter is a great opportunity to invite a friend who doesn't normally attend church. Be praying about who needs a special invite from you — with so many times and locations, it's never been easier to help someone get connected!

PRAYER

Father, we're so grateful that you aren't ashamed of us. You've done too much for us for us to stay silent. Help us to be bold witnesses for you. Give us the courage to share our faith with those around us. We love you. Amen.
