

KEEP TALKING

In this message, our campus pastors continued our series on Moses by exploring why God gave the Ten Commandments and how His ways don't limit our freedom—they teach us how to truly live. Use this guide to keep talking about the message.

KEY SCRIPTURES

- Exodus 19:4-6
- 1 Peter 2:9
- Deuteronomy 10:12-13
- Exodus 31:18
- Romans 8:1-4

START TALKING

- What's a rule or boundary you didn't appreciate growing up, but you're grateful for now?

KEEP TALKING

- What was your biggest takeaway from this message?
- It's possible to be set free and yet still live like a slave. What are some old mindsets or habits that were difficult to leave behind after you made the decision to follow Jesus?
- Which of the three purposes of God's law—distinction, protection, or revelation—stood out to you most? Why?
- Have you ever misunderstood one of God's commands, only to later realize it was for your good? What changed your perspective?
- If you lived like you belonged to God this week, what would change in the way you go about your life? What would you stop doing? What would you start doing?

KEEP IT GOING

- This week, spend some time reflecting on the Ten Commandments (Exodus 20:1-17). Instead of asking, "What does God want me to stop doing?" ask, "What kind of life is God inviting me into?"

PRAYER

Father, thank You for loving us enough to show us the best way to live. Help us to trust that Your ways are always for our good, even when we don't fully understand them. Teach us to follow You with willing hearts and to live in the freedom You've given us. Amen.
