

KEEP TALKING

In this message, Christine Caine explored Moses' relationship with God and reminded us that the greatest invitation God offers isn't simply to work for Him, but to walk with Him. Use this guide to keep talking about Sunday's message.

KEY SCRIPTURES

- Exodus 33:1-11
- 1 Corinthians 3:16

START TALKING

- If you could sit down and have a long conversation with anyone (living or dead), who would it be? What would you want to ask them?

KEEP TALKING

- What was your biggest takeaway from this message?
- Read Exodus 33:7–11. What stands out to you about this passage?
 - Joshua learned to seek God by watching Moses seek God. Who has modeled a genuine relationship with God for you? How has their example impacted your faith?
- Christine challenged us to think about how we view God. How do you think your view of God shapes the way you approach Him?
- Moses told God, "If Your Presence does not go with us, don't send us." What do you think it looks like to live with that same attitude today?
- Christine challenged us to think about the difference between simply checking in with God and truly walking with Him. Which of those two feels more like your relationship with God right now? Why?
- What's one practical step you can take this week to spend more intentional time with God?

KEEP IT GOING

- Set aside 10 uninterrupted minutes this week to meet with God. Leave your phone in another room, open your Bible, and simply spend time in His presence. Rather than rushing through a checklist, ask God to help you know Him more deeply and take time to linger in His presence.

PRAYER

Father, thank You for inviting us into a relationship with You. Forgive us for the times we've settled for simply checking in instead of truly walking with You. Help us to desire Your presence more than Your promises, Your provision, or anything this world has to offer. Draw us closer to You, and let our lives reflect Your goodness to the world around us. Amen.
